

Duane Sellers is a music group co-leader at the 11AM mass. He has been playing guitar and banjo at St. Tom's since 1984. Duane recently attended a choir director's workshop with Gerry Sousa.

In addition to his involvement in the music ministry, Duane is also very engaged in ministering to our sister parish in Haiti, traveling there two or three times a year. He has been involved in many other areas at St. Tom's over the years. Duane and his wife, Jane, have two wonderful adult daughters.
